Partner Agency Name and Address

- Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County (CAPSBC) 696 South Tippecanoe Avenue, San Bernardino CA 92408]

Who We Serve

- Low-income individuals and families, elderly, homeless and disadvantaged residents of San Bernardino County]

Services Offered

- Family Development Program (FDP) - Provides emergency assistance to include rental assistance, motel vouchers, food vouchers, bus passes, gas cards, information and referral, etc. FDP operates an 8-unit transitional housing program called Obershaw House to assist homeless families, and a Mobile Shower/Laundry Program. The program operates CAPSBC Mobile Offices to enhance our service delivery to remote areas of San Bernardino County, and to provide vital services to our most vulnerable populations. FDP provides holistic case management in addition to coordinating events and support for children such as an annual summer camp, a Christmas celebration, distribution of schools supplies and backpacks. The program operates the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA) that provides free tax preparation services to eligible individuals.
- Energy, Education, and Environmental Services (EEES) – Provides energy education, weatherization and energy conservation assistance to eligible low-income residents, including appliance repair and replacement. EEES also processes applications for utility assistance through the Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), including wood and propane. Also provides energy education for home, water, energy safety, and energy budgeting.
- Food Bank – Provides food for low-income residents throughout San Bernardino County through government surplus commodity distributions and donated food through a network of approximately 124 non-profit and charitable organizations including 17 congregate feeding agencies (soup kitchens). The program operates a senior nutrition program and campus cupboard program. The Food Bank operates a Mobile Food Pantry Program and a Mobile Community Kitchen to address the increased need for food assistance throughout the County. The program is a designated Diaper Bank in the State of California.]

Specialized Programs

- Weatherization Training Program, Obershaw Housing Program, CalAIM Outreach Program (coming soon), and Wealth Development Program (coming soon).]
