San Bernardino County AJCC System
Quick Reference Sheet

Date of update: 2/27/2026

Partner Agency Name and Address

- Employment Development Department Workforce Services Branch
- East Valley AJCC - 500 Inland Center, Dr., #508, San Bernardino, CA 92408

Who We Serve

- Job seekers receiving UI benefits, Youth, Veterans, Employers

Services Offered

- Access to education and job training opportunities that lead to new career pathways.
- Job search and resume assistance, job referral, placement assistance, and career coaching.
- In-person and virtual employment-related workshops and job fairs.
- Career exploration tools and labor market information.
- Resource rooms that include computers with internet, telephones, and fax machines.
- Access to CalJOBS (calJOBS.ca.gov), California's online job resource with over a million job postings from more than 30,000 employers.
- Referrals to supportive services, including childcare, utility, housing, and transportation assistance.

Specialized Programs

- Priority of services provided to veterans and eligible spouses' find employment and training opportunities.
- Youth employment opportunity program (YEOP) for ages 15 though 25, through a variety of specialized services in education, assessment, and peer advising to achieve educational and vocational goals

Getting Started

- Customers can access services by registering online through CalJOBS.ca.gov, the state's job search system, to search for jobs, post openings, and access employment resources
- Veterans can walk in our AJCCs and receive priority of service.

Customer-facing Website or Helpful Links

- CalJOBS.ca.gov

Who Customers Contact

Name: Employment Development Department- Workforce Services Branch (WSB)

Email: WSBARU039SANBERNARDINOAJCC@EDD.CA.GOV

Phone: (909) 382-0456

San Bernardino County AJCC System
Quick Reference Sheet

Who AJCC System Partners Contact

Name: Janet Covarrubias

Email: Janet.Covarrubias@edd.ca.gov

Phone: 909-382-0446]